

ASTM D1388 Stiffness of Fabrics by Cantilever Bend Method Fixture

The Cantilever Bend Test is a very simple test used to find the bend length and calculate the flexural rigidity of fabrics. The fixture has a numbered scale to measure the correct bend length. The bend angle is set to 41.5 degrees but it can also be made to 45 degrees.

Schematic (mm)

